Luke 10:25-37*The Parable of the Good Samaritan

And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

He said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read?"

And he answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself."

And he said to him, "You have answered right; do this, and you will live."

But, desiring to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion, and went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine; then he set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, 'Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.' Which of these three, do you think, proved neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?"

He said, "The one who showed mercy on him."

And Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Matthew 25:14-30*The Parable of The Talents

For it will be as when a man going on a journey called his servants and entrusted to them his property; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away.

He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them; and he made five talents more. So also, he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money.

Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them.

And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me five talents; here I have made five talents more.'

His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your master.'

And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me two talents; here I have made two talents more.'

He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not winnow; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.'

But his master answered him, 'You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sowed, and gather where I have not winnowed? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to him who has the ten talents.'

For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness; there men will weep and gnash their teeth.'"

1 I sing a song of the saints of God Pa-tient and brave and true,
2 They loved their Lord so dear, so dear, And his love made them strong;
3 They lived not on - ly in a - ges past, There are hun-dreds of thou-sands still;

Who toiled and fought and lived and died For the Lord they loved and
And they fol-lowed the right, for Je - sus' sake, The whole of their good lives
The world is bright with the joy-ous saints Who love to do Je - sus' knew. And one was a doc - tor, and one was a queen, And long. And one was a sol - dier, and one was a priest, And will. You can meet them in school, or in lanes, or at sea, In one was a shep-herd-ess on the green: They were all of them one was slain by a fierce wild beast: And there's not an - y church, or in trains, or in shops, or at tea; For the saints of saints of God, and I mean, God help - ing, to be one too.

rea - son, no, not the least, Why I shouldn't be one too.
God are just folk like me, And I mean to be one too.

COMMUNION OF SAINTS

TODAY IS LAITY SUNDAY On this Sunday, we celebrate the spiritual ministry of our laity by having our lay people (people from our congregation) lead the entire service. We also recognize how the people of our congregation minister to each other in many ways throughout the year – by teaching Church School, driving one another to the doctor in times of need, preparing meals during times of illness and grief, making telephone calls or visits, caring for families, offering spiritual or financial assistance to one another, reaching out to the poor and those in need...the list goes on. We are grateful to all the spiritual leaders in today's service: Tamberlyn Conopask, Katie Goodman, Sydney King Joe Pezzimenti, and our speaker, John Traynor. John is the Chief Investment Officer with People's Bank. He can often be seen on CNBC as he is a very well-respected visionary for the behaviors of the market. John is a deeply spiritual man who has worked to integrate work and faith in his daily life. John attended Villanova University as a rower and while there, met his wife Katie. They raised four children in Fairfield and are now raising their golden doodle puppy, Gipper.

OUR SECOND HOUR PROGRAM IS "THE EXAMINED LIFE - PART II" led by David Stuart, Don Burton, Rev. Cecily Stranahan and Rev. Paul Whitmore. Today's discussion will continue based on conversation from last week. All are invited to attend!

NEXT SUNDAY, OCTOBER 31 AT 11:15 a.m. - CONGREGATIONAL PRELIMINARY BUDGET MEETING IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING WORSHIP, IN THE SANCTUARY. All church members are asked to attend the Congregational Preliminary Budget Meeting. The budget for 2022, as recommended by the Board of Trustees and the Church Council, will be presented. Since we will be discussing programs for all of 2022 that impact every member, it is important that all members attend the meeting.
